co-op house

The Co-op House is composed of twenty-eight male occupants and a house mother. A cook plans and prepares the three daily meals served to the men at the house. Monthly rent covers the food budget planned by the college while linen is furnished through another budget.

The men, through a rotation system, take care of the cleaning, dish washing, and helping the cook. A house committee composed of five men is elected by the group to help the house run smoothly.

The Co-op House was opened to the Alpha Delta Theta Fraternity for meeting and for social activities. All parties and social events are decided on by the group and are organized by a two-man social committee. Members of Alpha Delta Theta may attend the house functions upon invitation unless plans are made by the fraternity alone.

coulee trekkers

A new organization on campus this year is the Coulee Trekkers. Through the stimulation of the new advisor, Mr. Fred Lengfeld, and the cooperation of the former Camping Club advisor, Miss Mary Hamilton, this new club was formed. Its purpose is to foster a wide student interest and participation in informal outdoor activities by providing leadership, programs, services, and equipment and assistance for students in developing outing skills and leadership.

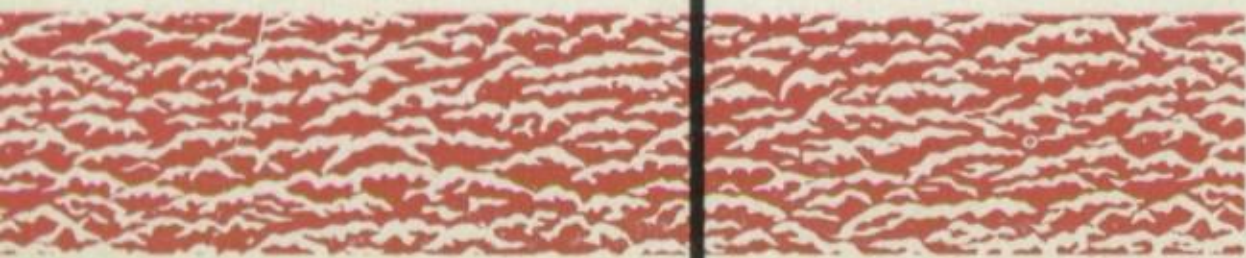

The group meets once a month. It is divided into different interest groups which function individually to meet the demands of the students and the season. Included are outing, skiing, horsemanship, skating, canoeing, archery, mountain climbing, and sailing.

The officers are president, Dave Osborne; vice-president, Pat Ganzel; secretary, Dixie Collins; treasurer, Brunhilde Buechal; historian, Jo Boyd; equipment manager, Don Allen.

win or lose—the band plays on

Well, if it isn't my little ol' roommate, allowing a aging popismore to sign her little ol' annual! Indeed, it is a great pleasure for me to write in the book of an aging upper class-man. (just joking, ridiculing, and kidding just a little!)

Seriously speaking, this is one year I wasn't going to let you get away without signing my book. Last year I had a whole page reserved — seems like we were roommates but you just (or I) didn't get that "Big Ben" fountain pen to scratch. Seems like I appear to be getting off the subject again, but since you could stand listening to me last year I guess it won't hurt if you have to read between the lines.

Oh, what a time we had last year at your birthday party hey? How those martini's of yours didn't do a thing for you. But "naïa mee" my other gurgling bud and I just couldn't seem to hold our own.

Another thing, I enjoyed being with you, wherever I was, at Milwaukee, or your home I mean, and I want you to know that I deeply appreciated asking me down. It took a while to get around to saying thank you's, but I hope you understand.

Now, another thing, if and when you are up north at the cottage, for heavens sake come on-a-my house.
I don't drink

{TURK}

anyone will scalp you — but men, watch out for the Shebster's! There's a upheaval. Of course that shouldn't be anything new!! You have a perfect example right here!

Now, only a few more words and I'll close because I figure you may be getting bored.

This little mother says to big mother take care of yourself — and Mike — this summer, have a wonderful time and if luck is with me I'll see you next year. Of course a lot depends on whether you aren't married!
